

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES A PROMOTION EXAMINATION FOR:

Title: Principal Library Clerk (DCC)

Number: 70017810

Salary: $54,755-66,711 – Dutchess County (2024 Salary)

Date of Examination: 04/18/2026

Applications Accepted Until: 03/06/2026

Applications postmarked 03/06/2026 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $15.00 fee and examination application are required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to "Commissioner of Finance" with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

NOTE: When applying for both open competitive and promotion or open competitive and interdepartmental promotion examinations for the same title, the examination fee will be waived for the promotion or interdepartmental promotion examination only.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in Dutchess Community College.

NOTE: An Open Competitive examination is being given in conjunction with this Promotion examination. The Promotion eligible list will be certified FIRST.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS FOR EXAMINATION: On or before April 18, 2026, to be eligible for the promotion examination, employees must meet the promotion qualifications listed below:

Candidates must possess one (1) year of permanent competitive class status as a Senior Library Clerk (DCC) in Dutchess Community College immediately preceding April 18, 2026.

NOTE: According to Civil Service Law, section 52.10(a) which became effective September 4, 2024, time served provisionally immediately preceding permanent appointment shall count towards meeting the time in title and the employee shall be eligible to take the promotion examination.

DUTIES: This position is responsible for supervising clerical employees engaged in the provision of support services to library patrons and to library technical support programs. In addition to providing supervision, the incumbent oversees the technical aspects of library support services such as circulation, ordering of materials, and special projects such as book sales, bar coding, etc. In addition to providing supervision, the incumbent serves as a technical resource to the professional librarians in developing and maintaining the processes necessary to deliver library services. This position would be expected to perform the following functions: providing training to employees, clarifying policies and procedures, compiling and analyzing information, developing written materials and performing any work that may be required of a lower level Library Clerk. The position differs from Senior Library Clerk because of the overall supervisory and program management responsibilities. In addition, this position must work with the administrative and professional staff to develop policies and procedures which conform to their needs, while meeting all applicable rules and regulations. General direction is received from higher level administrative staff. Supervision is exercised over the work of lower level employees, including performance counseling and appraisals, and scheduling for coverage. EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Supervises lower level Library Clerks, including the distribution and review of work, coverage of all unit activities, assigning employees to a specific unit or functions within their title and job and performance counseling; supervises the technical functioning of specific areas of the library such as circulation, reserve, material acquisition and fund raisers, such as annual book sale; attends departmental meetings to represent support service areas and provide input; disseminates information to employees; oversees ordering process for library materials; follows up on outstanding orders; checks new shipments against original invoices and processes invoices and vouchers for payment; resolves problems with vendors; prepares reports or summations concerning program area activities; enters data into and utilizes a variety of automated and on-line systems such as on-line catalog, college financial system, and word processing, to extract information for reports and to monitor system effectiveness; prepares and maintains manuals covering unit procedures and operational standards, such as eligibility for borrowing privileges; serves as technical resource for major library projects such as automation of library circulation records; maintains running accounts for library budget, including electronic budget transfer; gives input into budget preparation based on past usage and need.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Fundamentals of working in a library

These questions are designed to evaluate the candidate's knowledge about the common terms and concepts used in various sections of a library (e.g. Circulation, Reference, Technical Processing, etc.); the procedures associated with shelving, storing, checking out and receiving library materials; and the proper methods of using equipment commonly found in a library and of handling, processing and storing library materials.

Name and number checking

These questions test for the ability to distinguish between sets of words, letters, and/or numbers that are almost exactly alike. Material is usually presented in two or three columns, and you will have to determine how the entry in the first column compares with the entry in the second column and possibly the third. You will be instructed to mark your answers according to a designated code provided in the directions.

Customer service

These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact with other people, to gather and present information, and to provide assistance, advice and effective customer service in a courteous and professional manner. Questions will cover such topics as understanding and responding to people with diverse needs, perspectives, personalities, and levels of familiarity with agency operations, as well as acting in a way that both serves the public and reflects well on your agency.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.
