

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES A PROMOTION EXAMINATION FOR:

Title: Accountant
(School Districts)

Number: 70006280A

Salary: $60,000-85,000 – Salary varies with each school district

Date of Examination: 03/01/2025

Applications Accepted Until: 01/16/2025

Applications postmarked 01/16/2025 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $15.00 fee and examination application are required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to “Commissioner of Finance” with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

NOTE: When applying for both open competitive and promotion or open competitive and interdepartmental promotion examinations for the same title, the examination fee will be waived for the promotion or interdepartmental promotion examination only.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in all school districts under the jurisdiction of the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources.

NOTE: An Open Competitive examination is being given in conjunction with this Promotion examination. The Promotion eligible list will be certified FIRST.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS FOR EXAMINATION: On or before March 1, 2025, to be eligible for the promotion examination, employees must meet the promotion qualifications listed below:

Candidates must possess two (2) years of permanent competitive class status as a Junior Accountant in a school district under the jurisdiction of the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources immediately preceding March 1, 2025.

NOTE: According to Civil Service Law, section 52.10(a) which became effective September 4, 2024, time served provisionally immediately preceding permanent appointment shall count towards meeting the time in title and the employee shall be eligible to take the promotion examination.

DUTIES: This is a professional position which involves responsibility for the development, maintenance and pre-auditing of general accounting systems. Incumbents independently perform work assignments concerned with governmental accounting, budgeting and reporting. This class differs from that of Junior Accountant in that the latter is a technical position which assists a professional in one or more of the basic phases of the accounting process and from that of Senior Accountant or other higher level titles by virtue of less complex analytical and supervisory responsibilities. Work is performed under the general supervision of a higher level employee. Supervision may be exercised over lower level personnel.

EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Participates in the activities of an accounting operation or may assume responsibility for the accounting functions of less complex departmental operation; participates in the maintenance of manual or automated ledger operation including books of account, general or subsidiary ledgers, the classification and recording of transactions, the maintenance of controls, and the preparation of required accounting statements and reports; verifies, classifies, and codes financial transactions for manual entry or computer input following accepted accounting practices and subject to applicable laws, rules and regulations; supervises the record keeping and required fiscal reporting for state and federally funded programs by interpreting guidelines and instructions, monitoring schedules and reports, and providing advice and assistance; independently performs the more complex accounting work based on well-established and accepted accounting methods; participates in the preparation of schedules and financial statements required in the annual year-end closing process; prepares budgets or develops historical data for preparation of such including the determination and analysis of past cost factors; trains or assists with the training of staff in the details and objectives of the work; may supervise payroll operations; may recommend revisions or assist in the evaluation of existing accounting or preauditing methods; may supervise subordinate accounting personnel; may provide advice or assistance to departmental or non-departmental personnel in regard to accounting matters or resolving accounting software-related issues; may initiate, prepare and forward claims for state and federal reimbursement of programs or review the preparation of such.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

General accounting

These questions test for knowledge of the general accounting principles and practices used in the preparation of financial statements, in the recording and reporting of financial transactions, and in financial decision-making. Candidates will be required to demonstrate a current knowledge of Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). Knowledge of computerized information systems as it applies to accounting may be required.

General auditing

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and procedures involved in substantiating and examining transactions and financial statements. It will require a knowledge of auditing techniques and Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAS). Knowledge of the use of computerized accounting or auditing systems as it pertains to auditing may be required. Questions relating to internal controls applicable to manual and computerized accounting systems may be included.

Governmental accounting

These questions test for knowledge of the accounting practices employed to provide financial information used in determining and forecasting the condition of governmental units, and used for monitoring governmental performance, in terms of legal, contractual and fiduciary requirements. These questions will test for knowledge of and familiarity with common governmental funds, appropriation and encumbrance accounting, accounting for revenue and expenditures, and other aspects of accounting relating to the governmental sector.

Understanding and interpreting tabular material

These questions test your ability to understand, analyze, and use the internal logic of data presented in tabular form. You may be asked to perform tasks such as completing tables, drawing conclusions from them, analyzing data trends or interrelationships, and revising or combining data sets. The concepts of rate, ratio, and proportion are tested. Mathematical operations are simple, and computational speed is not a major factor in the test. You should bring with you a hand-held battery- or solar-powered calculator for use on this test. You will not be permitted to use the calculator function of your cell phone.

Test guide:

The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.

The use of calculators is RECOMMENDED for this exam.
