

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES AN OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR:

Title: Alternatives to Incarceration (ATI) Worker

Number: 60024810

Salary: $83,044 – Dutchess County (2024 Salary)

Date of Examination: 06/28/2025

Applications Accepted Until: 05/23/2025

Applications postmarked 05/23/2025 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $15.00 fee and examination application are required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to “Commissioner of Finance” with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in all units under the jurisdiction of the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: On or before June 28, 2025, to be eligible for this examination, applicant must meet the following minimum qualifications:

Current licensure as a Licensed Master Social Worker (LMSW) by the New York State Department of Education and two (2) years of full-time paid work experience in the development, implementation and/or supervision of programs or services significantly involved with providing counseling, casework, or legal advocacy services in a probation, parole, social services, psychiatric or medical social work agency or child welfare agency.

Anticipated Eligibility – Age and Educational Requirements:

According to Civil Service Law, section 54 which became effective September 4, 2024, applicants who are within 12 months of meeting the minimum age or attaining the minimum educational requirements following the date of examination, may take the civil service exam, but will be restricted from certification until such a time that the minimum age or educational requirements are met.

NOTE: Unless otherwise specified, part-time experience will be pro-rated towards meeting the full-time experience requirements.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS: Possession of a valid Driver License to operate a motor vehicle in New York State at time of application and to maintain the position.

DUTIES: This is a professional social service resource position that works as part of a defense team toward the goal of obtaining a disposition that is in the best interests of the clients. The primary objective of this position is to reduce the number of persons incarcerated and the attendant expense of that custody by providing the courts with viable alternatives to pre-trial detention and incarceration sentences. The advocate frees up attorneys and investigators by identifying and advocating for alternative sentencing programs, i.e. drug and alcohol counseling, referral services, eligibility for release, etc., thereby assisting in the ongoing efforts to relieve jail overcrowding. This position will also assist Attorney’s in Family Court work with clients charged with neglect and child abuse and similar type of legal proceedings. The incumbent works directly with clients, the Departments of Probation and Community Corrections, Mental Health and Health, human service agencies, and other governmental agencies to achieve programmatic goals, meeting with them on an ongoing basis to review appropriate candidates for pre-trial release and other programs. Direction and assistance will also be provided to those clients needing immediate intervention for public assistance or public shelter. Work is performed under the general direction of a higher-level administrator. Supervision over the work of others is not a function of this position. EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Interviews pre-trial clients and develops a profile of personal issues to determine need and eligibility for an ATI option; maintains individual caseload and develops mitigation reports, pre-plea or pre-sentence reports, pre-trial release or treatment plans and similar services for specified clients who are at risk of a jail or prison sentence, including those offenders who have violated their conditions of probation; provides information and referral services to a minimum of 100 additional clients for whom the availability of such information and referral services shall help to assure both a non-incarceration disposition and a more successful adjustment to the community; works with defense counsel to develop greater awareness and knowledge on the attorney’s part of alternative sentencing options; assesses the client’s needs and follows up by locating and making referrals to direct service programs; develops and maintains effective working relationships with those community based agencies which can provide assessments and necessary services to pre-trial prisoners; may assist clients to access appropriate programs, provide counseling, case management, and advocacy services; may be required to transport or visit clients in various programs or locations; participates at the weekly meetings with other criminal justice representatives to review appropriate candidates for pre-trial release. In the Department of Mental Health: Facilitates stakeholder meetings with law enforcement, treatment providers, attorneys, business owners, officials, and others as it relates to pre-trial diversion from incarceration; designs, implements, and oversees pre-trial diversion processes; educates community members, businesses, community groups, social service providers, etc. on pre-trial diversion processes; maintains awareness of grant opportunities to support intensive outreach to individuals with unmet behavioral health needs and submits grants applications to secure funds to support this intervention; actively coordinates with all other systems to fully integrate a prearrest diversion model to engage people who are experiencing homelessness and have unmet behavioral health needs; may be required to transport or visit clients in various programs or locations.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Advising and interacting with others

These questions test for the ability to interact with other people in order to gather and present information and to provide assistance and advice in a courteous and professional manner.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to write the kinds of reports and correspondence required in criminal justice settings such as probation and parole. Some questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately. Others test for the ability to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly.

Evaluating conclusions in light of known facts

These questions will consist of a set of facts and a conclusion. You must decide if the conclusion is proved by the facts, disproved by the facts or if the facts are not sufficient to prove or disprove the conclusion. The questions will not be specific to a particular field.

Interviewing

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in obtaining information from individuals through structured conversations. These questions require you to apply the principles, practices, and techniques of effective interviewing to hypothetical interviewing situations. Included are questions that present a problem arising from an interviewing situation, and you must choose the most appropriate course of action to take.

ADMISSION TO EXAMINATION: Do not interpret a notice to appear for, or actual participation in the examination to mean that you have been found to meet fully the announced requirements.

Depending on the time available before an examination, applicants may be admitted to the examination on the basis of statements made on the application or conditionally, without prior review of the application. Such statements may not be reviewed and/or verified until after the examination is held. At that time, those candidates not meeting the requirements are disqualified. Candidates who are subsequently disqualified after taking the test will NOT be notified of their score.

If you do not receive a notice three days prior to the date of examination informing you whether or not you are to be admitted to the examination, call the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources immediately at 845-486-2169.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Notify this office immediately of any change of address. The appropriate change of address form is available on the website, in the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, and will be available at the examination center.

RESIDENCE PREFERENCE: Pursuant to Section 23.4a of Civil Service Law, preference in appointment from open-competitive lists may be given to candidates who have been residents in a locality or school district in which appointment is to be made for at least 30 days prior to certification of the eligible list. For appointment in some jurisdictions you may be required to become a resident thereof in accordance with law or resolution.

NOTE: In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

APPLICATIONS: May be obtained online at www.dutchessny.gov, by sending a legal-sized, self-addressed, stamped envelope or visiting the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, 22 Market Street, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601 (9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday).
