

DUTCHESS COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES ANNOUNCES AN OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION FOR:

Title: Print Shop Supervisor

Number: 89545010

Salary: $60,204 – Dutchess County

Date of Examination: 10/26/2024

Applications Accepted Until: 09/20/2024

Applications postmarked 09/20/2024 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $15.00 fee and examination application are required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to "Commissioner of Finance" with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

NOTE: When applying for both open competitive and promotion or open competitive and interdepartmental promotion examinations for the same title, the examination fee will be waived for the promotion or interdepartmental promotion examination only.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in the Dutchess County Office of Central and Information Services (OCIS).

NOTE: A Promotion examination is being given in conjunction with this Open Competitive examination. The Promotion eligible list will be certified FIRST.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Candidates must meet the following requirements on or before October 26, 2024:

EITHER: (A) Completion of a vocational course of at least six months duration in printing or a related field at a college, university, vocational or technical school AND one (1) year of full-time work experience in a printing facility which included offset duplicating, computer-based layout, high speed copiers, binding, and other related equipment and processes;

OR: (B) Two (2) years of full-time work experience as described in (A) above;

OR: (C) An equivalent combination of training and experience as described in (A) and (B) above.

NOTE: Unless otherwise specified, part-time experience will be pro-rated towards meeting the full-time experience requirements.

DUTIES: This is supervisory and technical work involving responsibility for overseeing and participating in the printing services of County departments, municipality, or school district. The work involves the management of a fully operational print shop within acceptable safety standards, as well as assigning or performing all tasks in the printing process (i.e., layout, establishing production specifications, plate making, operating reproduction equipment and packaging products). In addition, the incumbent maintains production cost records for completed work. The class differs from that of Offset Printer by virtue of supervisory responsibility for the section and broader scope of work such as the performance of layout tasks. Work is performed under the general supervision of a higher-level employee with leeway allowed in layout function and in setting work priorities. Direct supervision is exercised over subordinate employees. EXAMPLES OF WORK

(Illustrative Only): Develops methods and procedures governing the operation of a printing facility; supervises, sets up and operates offset printing press including color work and production copiers; supervises and performs paste up, composition, layout and plate making for department forms, reports, letterhead stationery, ballots, and registration books; supervises and maintains master plate file for recurring printing requirements; manages user agency accounts including activation, deactivation, job ticket creation, template production and proper billing procedures; coordinates and performs layout and design on a computer publishing system; reviews reproduction requirements and determines the most practical and economical method of reproduction to be used, including training user agencies on best practices for job creation; maintains production records and pricing databases; supervises and performs equipment preventive maintenance/repairs to assure uninterrupted operation; writes work orders, internal quarterly reports, requests for proposals, and scopes of services; assists in the inventory control of all products used by the print shop and ensures timely ordering of materials and supplies.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

Name and number checking

These questions test for the ability to distinguish between sets of words, letters, and/or numbers that are almost exactly alike. Material is usually presented in two or three columns, and you will have to determine how the entry in the first column compares with the entry in the second column and possibly the third. You will be instructed to mark your answers according to a designated code provided in the directions.

Operations with Letters and Numbers

These questions test for skills and abilities in operations involving alphabetizing, comparing, checking and counting. The questions require you to follow the specific directions given for each question which may involve alphabetizing, comparing, checking and counting given groups of letters and/or numbers.

Keeping simple inventory records

These questions test for the ability to follow instructions in keeping simple inventory records of different materials received and distributed from a central location. The ability to add, subtract, multiply, and divide will be required. You may have to compute total costs from quantities (number of units) and cost or price per unit. Knowledge of specific record keeping systems and techniques will not be needed.

Supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices employed in planning, organizing, and controlling the activities of a work unit toward predetermined objectives. The concepts covered, usually in a situational question format, include such topics as assigning and reviewing work; evaluating performance; maintaining work standards; motivating and developing subordinates; implementing procedural change; increasing efficiency; and dealing with problems of absenteeism, morale, and discipline.

Test guide:

COLLEGE CREDITS AND/OR DEGREE: Your degree or college credit must have been awarded by a college or university accredited by a regional, national, or specialized agency recognized as an accrediting agency by the U.S. Department of Education/U.S. Secretary of Education. If your degree was awarded by an educational institution outside the United States and its territories, you must provide independent verification of equivalency. A list of acceptable companies who provide this service can be found on the internet at <http://www.cs.ny.gov/jobseeker/degrees.cfm>. You must pay the required evaluation fee.

VETERANS: Military personnel who are either in the service at time of examination or who have already been discharged may apply for disabled or non-disabled veterans’ credits if they meet established criteria. Candidates who are interested in these additional credits should request an application and information sheet from the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources. Veterans’ application forms will also be available on the website and upon request at the examination center. The completed forms and DD-214 (Member 4 Copy) must be received in the office as soon as possible after the examination date or before the eligible list for this examination is established.

CALCULATORS: Unless otherwise notified, candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, spell checkers, personal digital assistants, address books, language translators, dictionaries or any similar devices are prohibited.

ADMISSION TO EXAMINATION: Do not interpret a notice to appear for, or actual participation in the examination to mean that you have been found to meet fully the announced requirements.

Depending on the time available before an examination, applicants may be admitted to the examination on the basis of statements made on the application or conditionally, without prior review of the application. Such statements may not be reviewed and/or verified until after the examination is held. At that time, those candidates not meeting the requirements are disqualified. Candidates who are subsequently disqualified after taking the test will NOT be notified of their score.

If you do not receive a notice three days prior to the date of examination informing you whether or not you are to be admitted to the examination, call the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources immediately at 845-486-2169.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: Notify this office immediately of any change of address. The appropriate change of address form is available on the website, in the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, and will be available at the examination center.

RESIDENCE PREFERENCE: Pursuant to Section 23.4a of Civil Service Law, preference in appointment from open-competitive lists may be given to candidates who have been residents in a locality or school district in which appointment is to be made for at least 30 days prior to certification of the eligible list. For appointment in some jurisdictions you may be required to become a resident thereof in accordance with law or resolution.

NOTE: In conformance with section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty shall be entitled to receive an additional ten points in a competitive examination for original appointment in the same municipality in which his or her parent has served. If you are qualified to participate in this examination and are a child of a firefighter or police officer killed in the line of duty in this municipality, please inform this office of this matter when you submit your application for examination. A candidate claiming such credit has a minimum of two months from the application deadline to provide the necessary documentation to verify additional credit eligibility. However, no credit may be added after the eligible list has been established.

APPLICATIONS: May be obtained online at www.dutchessny.gov, by sending a legal-sized, self-addressed, stamped envelope or visiting the Dutchess County Department of Human Resources, 22 Market Street, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601 (9 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday).
