Title: Deputy Fire Chief
(LaGrange Fire District)

Number: 70018410

Salary: $140,080-157,661 – LaGrange Fire District

Date of Examination: 02/07/2026

Applications Accepted Until: 12/29/2025

Applications postmarked 12/29/2025 will be accepted.

Applications accepted until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Administration of an exam does not imply a vacancy exists.

A $25.00 fee and examination application are required for each separately numbered examination: Application processing fee is payable by check, money order or credit card. Cash is NOT accepted. Check or money order must be made payable to “Commissioner of Finance” with the examination number and title indicated on the check or money order. The fee may be waived for candidates meeting certain criteria. See application for more details regarding fee waiver. Read the announcement carefully; the application processing fee will NOT be refunded to disapproved applicants.

VACANCY: The eligible list established as a result of this examination will be used, when appropriate, to fill vacancies as they occur in the LaGrange Fire District.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS FOR EXAMINATION: On or before February 7, 2026, to be eligible for the promotion examination, employees must meet the promotion qualifications listed below:

Candidates must be permanently employed with the LaGrange Fire District immediately preceding February 7, 2026, and held the title of Fire Lieutenant in the competitive class at LaGrange Fire District for ten (10) years.

NOTE: According to Civil Service Law, section 52.10(a) which became effective September 4, 2024, time served provisionally immediately preceding permanent appointment shall count towards meeting the time in title and the employee shall be eligible to take the promotion examination.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT:

Candidates who have not previously received a permanent appointment to a firefighter position would additionally have to meet the requirements of Section 209-w of General Municipal Law which include completion of an approved fire basic safety training program.

DUTIES: This is a managerial position involving responsibility for the administrative functions of the fire department and for directing the department in the absence of the Fire Chief. An employee in this class will be required to take command at fires and other emergencies in the absence of the Fire Chief or when so directed by the Fire Chief. The work is performed under the general supervision of the Fire Chief and/or the Board of Commissioners. Supervision will be exercised over the work of all subordinate fire department personnel.

EXAMPLES OF WORK (Illustrative Only): Directs all administrative functions of fire department including, but not limited to personnel, purchasing, record keeping and property management; takes active command at fires in the absence of the Fire Chief or when directed; develops operating policies and procedures; participates in collective negotiations and administers labor agreements; handles employee disciplinary matters; implements orders and directives issued by the Fire Chief; leads and participates in fire prevention and inspection activities; leads and participates in training activities; directs department in Fire Chief's absence; may interview prospective employees; prepares a variety of reports; does related work as required.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: A test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

Educating and interacting with the public

These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact effectively with individuals and/or community groups, to educate or inform them about topics of concern, to publicize or clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with others in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

Preparing written material

These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Fire administration job simulation exercise

This job simulation exercise tests for the ability to develop and maintain fire department programs and activities. The questions will be based on a simulated set of administrative issues that a Chief Officer may be asked to analyze and respond to in a working day. The questions cover such areas as organizational relationships, planning, staffing, managing resources, budgeting, public relations, rules and regulations, and political and social concerns impacting the fire service.

Fire emergency job simulation exercise

This job simulation exercise tests for the ability to manage an emergency incident. The emphasis is on command-level actions and decisions in handling the incident from start to finish. The questions will cover such areas as principles and tactics of firefighting, accountability at a fire scene, hazardous materials, cause investigation, emergency medical care, community relations, and the incident command system, including interacting with other agencies and the media.

Administrative supervision

These questions test for knowledge of the principles and practices involved in directing the activities of a large subordinate staff, including subordinate supervisors. Questions relate to the personal interactions between an upper level supervisor and their subordinate supervisors in the accomplishment of objectives. These questions cover such areas as assigning work to and coordinating the activities of several units, establishing and guiding staff development programs, evaluating the performance of subordinate supervisors, and maintaining relationships with other organizational sections.
